

“Return to China”, 2015

About the program

“Return to China” is a program designed specifically for those outstanding talents in Chinese language and Chinese culture. The purpose is to provide them more opportunities to come together to communicate, collaborate, brainstorm, learn and share, creating connections and synergies that will benefit all BLCU community members.

Who will be qualified?

Those alumni who studied in Beijing Language and Culture University before and have acquired sufficient knowledge of Chinese language, and are willing to advance their relationship with China will be the qualified candidates. We will select 30 participants from the qualified candidates to attend the “Return to China” program, 2015 and will continue to organize more activities in the following years for other qualified ones.

When and where will it be held?

The “Return to China” program is a long term program which will start to run from October, 2015. The first meeting will be organized in Beijing Language and Culture University during the third week of October, 2015.
